American Transmission Co. names Banks to lead Internal Audit, Compliance

PEWAUKEE, Wis. – American Transmission Co. has named Juanita C. Banks director of Internal Audit and Compliance. Banks will provide strategic direction for both departments and will oversee ATC's compliance with new federal mandatory reliability standards that ensure the safe and reliable operation of the bulk electric system. Banks will report to Bert Garvin, vice president, general counsel and secretary.

Banks served as manager of internal audit at ATC for four years where she also chaired the ethics committee. Most recently, Banks was an associate director of internal audit with Protiviti Inc., an internal audit and business risk consulting firm. She also held accounting and auditing positions at WH Brady, Northwestern Mutual and Arthur Andersen, and worked as a special agent with the Wisconsin Department of Justice.

Banks received a bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee. She is a certified public accountant and certified internal auditor.

*ATC owns, operates, builds and maintains the high-voltage electric transmission system serving portions of Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota and Illinois. Formed in 2001 as the nation's first multi-state transmission-only utility, ATC has invested $2 billion to improve the adequacy and reliability of its infrastructure. ATC now is a $2.5 billion company with 9,400 miles of transmission lines and 510 substations. The company is a member of the Midwest ISO regional transmission organization, and provides nondiscriminatory service to all customers, supporting effective competition in energy markets without favoring any market participant.
