

Antitrust Reminder

Participants in ATCLLC meeting activities must refrain from the following when acting in their capacity as participants in ATCLLC activities (e.g., at meetings, conference calls and in informal discussions):

- Discussions involving pricing information, especially margin (profit) and internal cost information and participants' expectations as to their future prices or internal costs.
- Discussions of a participant's marketing strategies.
- Discussions regarding how customers and geographical areas are to be divided among competitors.
- Discussions concerning the exclusion of competitors from markets.
- Discussions concerning boycotting or group refusals to deal with competitors, vendors or suppliers.

FERC Order No. 2004
Standards of Conduct Reminder

FERC Standards of Conduct prohibit ATC from sharing non-public transmission sensitive information with anyone who is either an affiliate merchant or could be a conduit of information to an affiliate merchant.

FERC Order No. 2004 Reminder

- Transmission availability, capacity, maintenance or other operating or reliability information must not be shared with merchants through any method other than publicly, through the Open Access Same-Time Information System (OASIS).
- Some entities interconnected with ATC have signed a Confidential Data Access Agreement (CDAA) that includes names of employees who have been trained in FERC Standards of Conduct, understand the information sharing prohibitions, and are therefore authorized to receive non-public transmission sensitive information.
- ATC communications to interconnected entity employees may include non-public transmission sensitive information only if all such employees present are named on CDAA(s).
